We Are Here When You Need Us

From the loss of a home in a fire to regional flood, the American Red Cross is there to help New Hampshire residents. The Red Cross provides relief services to meet the emergency needs of anyone who suffered a disaster.

Thanks to generous volunteers, we help relieve the immediate stress and allow families to focus on re-building their lives.

Since its founding in 1881 by Clara Barton, the American Red Cross has been the nation's premier emergency response organization. The Red Cross has been active in New Hampshire since 1917, providing and advocating for disaster relief, support to the Armed Forces, and emergency training and preparedness. The American Red Cross is where people mobilize in emergencies to help their neighbors – down the street, across the country, and around the world.
